

The Tide Tables

An intriguing new play about midlife
by Christine Watkins

With haunting new music by Sianed Jones
& sparkling a capella songs by Mary Keith

Presented by Honeysuckle Direction and the Centre for Performance Research and supported by the Wellcome Trust, The Tide Tables cuts across arts/science boundaries with a vibrant and thought-provoking look at 'Midlife'.

"Ladies and Gentlemen and Seagulls
Right in the middle of my life I find Myself right in the middle of a beach –"

Memory and Biology circle each other as holidaymaker Elin finds the landscape of her own heart and body being laid bare by the retreating sea. Keeping her company on the shoreline are the determinedly cheerful Beach Radio quartet and a strange lifeguard with advice on how to navigate a rapidly turning tide...

"Entertaining, witty... The Tide Tables fascinates and charms..."
Hereford Times review

TOUR DATES MAY/JUNE 2011

Thurs May 5th
Tues May 10th
Tues May 17th
Thurs May 19th
Fri May 27th
Wed June 1st
Thurs June 2nd

Aberystwyth Arts Centre
Theatr Brycheiniog Brecon
Ludlow Assembly Rooms
Darlington Arts Centre
Jersey Arts Centre
Anatomy Theatre & Museum London
Gulbenkian Theatre Canterbury

Visit www.honeysuckledirection.org for contact details for all venues